Hagarty Named Gift Planning Director for Rockynol

Akron – Debra K. Hagarty has been named gift planning director for the Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Services (OPRS) Foundation serving Rockynol Retirement Community in Akron. Hagarty is responsible for managing Rockynol’s major gift program. She will be on campus regularly to assist Rockynol supporters through outright gifts, deferred gifts or their estate plans.

Hagarty has been on staff with the OPRS Foundation since 1998, and has previously served in roles for both donor relations and church relations for Rockynol. She also currently serves as gift planning director for Lake Vista of Cortland, and Park Vista Retirement Community in Youngstown. Hagarty is a graduate of the University of Akron and is past board member of the Akron-Canton chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

Hagarty can be reached at Rockynol by calling 330-867-2150. She and her husband Jim reside in Akron with their children.

Over the years, philanthropic efforts of the OPRS Foundation have helped Rockynol enhance its services, expand and improve its facilities and develop new programs. OPRS is the largest and most experienced not-for-profit provider of continuing care retirement communities and services in Ohio. A faith-based organization with headquarters in Columbus, OPRS serves more than 80,000 people in 42 Ohio counties annually through its 11 retirement communities and its Senior Independence home and community based services division.
